“Nicaragua: Surviving the Legacy of U.S. Policy — A Photographic Testimony”

Join us for a presentation by Paul Dix and Pam Fitzpatrick for a slide show and discussion of how the U.S. sponsored Contra War affected the lives of Nicaraguans during the past three decades (based on interviews and photos as depicted in their recently published, bilingual book, Nicaragua: Surviving the Legacy of US Policy.

Thursday, October 4th at 4 p.m. in the Ewing Room (Perkins Student Center)

In addition:

We will open our Latin American Women’s Studies class to the public for a focus on women who are working for change in Nicaragua.

“Women Working for Peace and Equality in Nicaragua”

Friday, October 5th 1:25-2:15 in 217 Gore Hall

Sponsored by the Departments of Women & Gender Studies, Political Science & International Relations, and Latin American & Iberian Studies