The Jewish Studies Program, Art Department, Department of Women and Gender Studies, Center for Global and Area Studies, Islamic Studies Program, and Hillel Center for Jewish Life are proud to present:

Kholood Eid

Intersecting Parallels:
The Identities of Arab and Jewish Women in Haifa, Israel

Please join us for the artist’s lecture and exhibit opening, with a lunch reception to follow:

Monday, September 21, 2015
12:30pm-2:00pm
110 ISE Lab
University of Delaware

Six women—three mother/daughter pairs of different ethnic and religious backgrounds—were photographed living everyday life in Haifa, Israel during the summer of 2014. This exhibit of images and texts provides fascinating insight into the complex ways that women construct their identities in this tumultuous region.